SUPERANNUATION: ARE WE ADEQUATELY PREPARING WOMEN FOR RETIREMENT?

AN IMPORTANT CONSIDERATION FOR EVERY EMPLOYEE

KEYNOTE SPEAKER

Catherine Wood

National Chair of Women in Super

Join us on Friday 26 October at the Novotel Brisbane for the IRSQ Women in Industrial Relations Annual High Tea.

Attendees will be treated to a sumptuous high tea and glass of bubbles as part of this coveted networking opportunity for those seeking to empower women in the field of industrial relations in Queensland.

Register now to learn more about superannuation, a timely topic given changes in legislation and current discussion in the media. Attendees will hear from guest speaker Catherine Wood from Women in Super on:

- Addressing the inequality in female employee super fund balances;
- Encouraging women to consider their retirement and superannuation;
- Lessening the impact of career breaks; and
- Improving financial security.

Catherine will be joined by two guest presenters, where the floor will be opened for questions from the audience. The event will provide the opportunity for attendees to benefit from our presenters' knowledge and experiences.
