PATRON'S LUNCH FUNCTION

JOIN US FOR THE 2018 IRSQ PATRON'S LUNCH

The IRSQ is pleased to invite you to attend our annual Patron's Lunch for 2018. We are delighted to welcome our guest speaker Natalie Wakefield from the Office of Industrial Relations, who will speak to the topic of the new labour hire licensing laws in Queensland and provide her perspective on how compliance with the laws will be administered as head of the Labour Hire Licensing Compliance Unit.

This event promises to be a great information share and networking opportunity!

GUEST SPEAKER

Natalie Wakefield

Director, Labour Hire Licensing Compliance Unit, Office of Industrial Relations

Natalie Wakefield is an experienced public sector leader with a passion for community service. She has degrees in law and commerce, and extensive experience in leading the design and implementation of compliance frameworks in a regulatory environment. In particular, she was Director of the complex investigation and enforcement function at the Office of State Revenue, having been involved heavily in the development of that unit from inception. She was also Director of the risk, intelligence and data analytics functions of OSR for around 5 years.

In those roles, Natalie regularly represented the Commissioner of State Revenue on national committees and Taskforces, including the Black Economy and Phoenix Taskforces. She worked closely with Commonwealth agencies such as the Australian Taxation Office, other State Revenue agencies, the Fair Work Ombudsman and Home Affairs to collaborate on difficult compliance issues.

Natalie took on the newly established role of Director, Labour Hire Licensing Compliance Unit, as she saw it as an opportunity to make a difference to support vulnerable workers.
